Frequently asked questions:

Refunds & Cancellation for Rottnest flights

- ◆ We understand that sometimes your plans can change. 24 hours notice is required if you can not fly on your booked date. In this event, we will endeavour to find a date that is suitable within 30 days. In the event that you can not find a suitable date within 30 days of booked date, a credit voucher will be issued and the fare paid will be valid for 6 months. If there has been a price increase after 6 months from original booked date, the difference in fare must be paid.
- ◆ We take safety very seriously and if ACW deems it unsafe to fly due to extreme weather conditions, then we will negotiate a next safest time to fly as booked.

Covid Information:  WHEN VALID

Unfortunately restrictions placed on us are out of our control, and therefore we have had to make the following adjustments to our flights.

- ◆ As from Saturday 5th February 2022, passengers will be required to wear masks whilst inside the aircraft unless you are from the same family whereby this will be exempt whilst within flight, but not at terminals.
- ◆ Mask wearing is mandatory at all terminal airports whilst in the terminal and on the tarmac. * Bunbury is not a terminal airport.
- ◆ Due to mask restrictions, refreshments will no longer be provided on flights.
- ◆ All pilots employed by ACW are fully vaccinated
- ◆ In the event of a lockdown and flight restrictions apply, a credit voucher will be issued, valid for 6 months

We're here to make your flight a special day! If you can't find your answer here, please contact us.
